Cycling In Pendle

Welcome to the pendle cycle map, surrounded by outstanding countryside, with a growing network of cycle paths. Pendle is becoming a great place to cycle.

Make cycling part of your healthy lifestyle.

Cycling is a great way to stay fit and healthy, or just to spend time with the family. Pendle is a wonderful area for cycling with 70 miles of cycle routes. Pendle is not planning to be just for the fitter – Pendle is becoming a great place for all level of riders.

Did you know that regular cycling—

- Keeps you young – regular cycling is still at its peak, even if you get old! Pendle is a perfect place to enjoy the countryside.

Save money by cycling.

- Pendle is becoming a great place for cycling.

Cycling is a great way to stay fit and healthy, but did you know that you can cycle for free in Pendle?

Long distance routes

Natural Cycle Route 91

This 20 mile route is non-urban in nature and runs through several villages and towns, linking the major towns of Preston, Nelson and Colne. It is a great route for families to enjoy on holiday in Pendle.

Natural Cycle Route 91

This 20 mile route is non-urban in nature and runs through several villages and towns, linking the major towns of Preston, Nelson and Colne. It is a great route for families to enjoy on holiday in Pendle.

Discover Pendle's countryside by bicycle.