Lancashire Cycleway, are available from Tourist Information Centres. You can...
Please remember that you are responsible for your own and others safety on the towpath.

- Obey the Highway Code
- Do not assume other people can hear or see you.
- Watch out for hazards and take extra care when passing
- Be polite.
- Slow down and warn others of your approach. A pinger bell is a good alternative to the old-fashioned ones!
- Ride at a gentle pace, in single file.
- Give Way to other users at all times.

Common sense rules:
As the route is shared with others users it is good practice to follow some simple guidelines:

Pennine Cycleway

The Pennine Cycleway (Lancashire) Cycling Code
As the route is shared with others users it is good practice to follow some simple common sense rules:

- Give Way to other users at all times.
- Ride at a gentle pace, in single file.
- Slow down and warn others of your approach. A pinger bell is a good alternative to the old-fashioned ones!
- Be polite.
- Watch out for hazards and take extra care when passing underneath the bridges.
- Do not assume other people can hear or see you.
- Obey the Highway Code

Please remember that you are responsible for your own and others safety on the towpath.